“SVYATA LNU.RODNAE MODNAE” (The Festival of Flax and Linen)

On June 27–28, 2026, the final events of the 4th International Festival “SVYATA LNU. RODNAE MODNAE” (The Festival of Flax and Linen in 2026) will take place in the historic part of Minsk (Upper Town).

SVYATA LNU in 2026:

- ❖ Promotion of national, historical, cultural values and traditions;
- ❖ Presentation of modern industrial and food products based on these values and traditions;
- ❖ Exploring the potential of flax and linen across a wide range of economic sectors.

For the first time SVYATA LNU took place in March-April 2023. From 2023 to 2025, the RODNAE MODNAE contest and brand shows featured over 100 collections by Belarusian and international designers and enterprises.

In 2025, the events were attended by representatives of embassies and public organizations from Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, Pakistan, Russia, Serbia, Bulgaria, Switzerland, Moldova, the Kingdom of Spain, the Court of the Eurasian Economic Union, and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in the Republic of Belarus. The contests and brand shows brought together enterprises, designers, and folk artists from Belarus, the Russian Federation, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Turkey, Iran, Turkmenistan, and Nigeria.

A hallmark of SVYATA LNU is the presentation of joint collections by Belarusian and international designers. In 2025, Fashion Center OJSC presented outfits created in collaboration with designers from Kazan and Torzhok, who were participants of SVYATA LNU in 2023 and 2024. The “Splendour of the East” and “International Belarus” collections were created by designers from Belarus, Uzbekistan, Turkey, Iran, Turkmenistan, and Nigeria.
